"UN please calm down on the drinking". EU begged him to put the bottle down.

"I don't know what to do anymore EU the world so fucked up at the moment I mean climate change is getting worse for some reason kids are making memes about WW3 and are scaring people especially the Europeans I mean the woken to that think WW3 was actually going on". UN said taking a long spin of his whiskey. EU signed he knew UN was right he always was but he can't drink it away. "And then there the two world superpowers". UN grumbled. "Huh you mean Miss America and Mr Russia".

"Who the fuck else would it be"

EU blushed a bit in embarrassment.
"W-What about them ?"

"Open you god damn eyes EU! They won't get over the fucking past!" UN yelled slamming his glass bottle down on the table making EU jump.

EU want to say that a lot of other countries didn't like each other cause of there past and that it wasn't fair just to pick out Russia and America...but he was afraid of UN in his drunk state. "You know what EU I'll force them to get get along they both pissed me off far to much". UN got up form his seat and started walking to his office with a terrifying smirk/smile on his face. "W-What..are you going to d-do". EU stuttered on his words he was shaking in fear.

"You'll see sweetheart you'll see".

America walked down the hallway to the room she was told to go to. America got a call early in the morning form UN saying to meet him at the great hall form a very important meeting that she wasn't allowed to miss. That's how life is if you're the world superpower. America reached the room and knocked on the door.

"Come in America".

America open the door to see UN sitting in boss spinning chair EU standing beside him looking down and Russia sitting on a couch with table in the middle of them. 'Whats going on know ?' America thought to herself.

"Take a seat Missy". UN said with a large creepy smile he was pulling out files for his suitcase and putting them on the table. 'Why does he have the smile of the joker' America sat on the other side the couch.

"Sooo you two what to know why you guys are here ?"

The two countries nodded.

"Well congratulations you're both engaged".

"..what ?"

"You two fight a lot and what better way than marriage to fix it". UN said with smirk he was enjoying this way to much and then both know he wasn't messing around.

"UN go suck a dick !" Russia yelled at him clearly flustered. EU gasped and covered his mouth he had timed blush on his face . America was shocked that UN want them to get married and that Russia had the balls to insult UN the leader of all the countries you know that guy who can get rid of any country by the click of his fingers.

UN smirk fell of his face he broke the pen that he was holding making all the black ink go over his hand.

"Russia..there is no need for that attitude your 1156 years old you and America brought this up on yourself so deal with your actions".

"Yeah and aren't you like seventy five heck America older than you and isn't she the New world or some shit". Russia answered back he was fucking done with UN he thinks that he can boss everyone around and knows everything Russia has been here so much longer than him has fuck nearly everyone has.

UN was turning red with angry. EU started moving his hand and shaking his head signing for Russia to stop and shut up

"Russia grow up and deal with you're fucking actions yes your the oldest in the room congratulations good for you meaning you should be the most wisest your engaged to America to be her husband and she'll be your wife".

"I am not marrying her and her huge as tits". Russia not realizing what he had just said. The room went silent. Both EU and UN where dumbfounded. It was then Russia realized what had just come out of his mouth and that he fucked up big.

America turned to look at Russia and raised her hand to slap him.

SLAP

Russia groaned and rubbed his check as America pouted and crossed her arms. UN and EU blinked at few times.

"Okay that happened um right you will get married in about year until then you two will live together and every week will do something together like a simple walk or watch a movie EU, NATO and myself will come in regular to check on you guys to see how it's work that's it your both dismiss go pack your bags". UN explained

America and Russia both hurried out the door not wanting to stay in that room any longer.

"UN are you sure this will work what if this ends up terrible I mean for the way they acted about hearing the news it might end up into a abuse of relationships".

"Don't worry your pretty little face of EU I'll handle everything now let's go see what NATO has to say".

Well thats chapter one I know it wasn't the best but then again it's only chapter one also just for the people how don't know I am dyslexic so sorry for mistakes and this is my first story that not a one short book or a crack book

Chapter two

Before we start the chapter I want to say thank you for all the support we got 100 reads so thank you all for that

---

"Absolutely not". NATO said crossing her arms. She was very against UN amazing plan to solve most the worlds problems.

"Why not". UN whines

"You can't force people to get married thats not your decision times have chance UN". NATO explained she couldn't blame UN was he out of his mind forcing countries to marry specially Russia and America.

EU, NATO, UN and ASEN where all in the main meeting room. EU watch quietly while ASEN complained about being forgot about.

"NATO so help me ill will fuck you into that wall and force EU to watch"

"What no get away for me you prevent!"

EU signed but blushed a bit at UN not necessarily comment while ASEN just groaned. "What do you see in him ?" ASEN ask finally looking at EU. "Pardon ?"

"What do you see in UN why do you like him ?"

"W-what I don't like him he's just my boss and you know friend". EU said blushing madly.

"You're not fooling anyone EU you blush at nearly everything he said or when people talk about him I mean you're blushing right now you'll do anything for him and he knows this his using you EU please I don't want to see you hurt".

EU shock his head disagreeing with ASEN.

UN wasn't using him not at all....right ?

America kicked the the small stones as she walked home. She couldn't blame UN he want her and Russia to get married and live with each other. She hated everything about Russia and he wants her to be his wife!
She hated his strong hot body and his stupid sexy accent. Okay yeah he really hot but that's doesn't mean she likes him she just admired his body nothing wrong with that. I mean everyone do it when you get to America age. But America was most worried about China how would he feel all about this. America finally reached her shared house. "Babe I am home".

"I am in my office Amy". China answered back.
America speed walk down the hall to his office. China turned around on his chair to see America at his door she walked up to him and bent down she wrapped her arms around his neck and gave him a kiss on the check. China gave her peck on the cheek as well. China was used of having America sit in his lap and watch him do his work it never bothered him. "Chin at dinner I have something really important to tell you". America said looking down.
"Oh okay Amy". China smiled. America didn't smile back tho she walk away for China and walked back to the door.
"I'll start dinner". She said and with that she walked out of his office.

When America walked out of the door and closed it behind her China jumped up in happiness. He was so excited. 'I can't believe I am dad America pregnant okay calm down China she wants to tell you I can't wait for dinner'. China thought to himself but his thoughts where the completed opposite of what actually going. While America was a nervous wreck she could barely make dinner her hands where shaking she couldn't focus at all

China walked in happily into the dinning room. China sat at the head of the table while America sat next to him on his left side.

Neither of them said a word America didn't even look up for her plate she just stared down at her food. China didn't like the silence at all he wanted to hear about his girlfriend day or about the news she wanted to tell him he wanted to hear her beautiful voice or for her to look up at him. China coughed and clearly his throat. "The foods lovely Amy you really did a amazing job". China completed trying to start a conversation between the two. America finally looked up for her plate. "Thank you China".

'Okay something wrong she called me China instead of a nickname'. China was now panicking that he had done something bad or maybe that America didn't want kids due to how young she was. "Amy wants wrong and please don't say your fine cause your clearly not".

"UN is forcing me to get married to Russia...". America quietly said.

"What ?" China said praying that he heard her wrong.

"UN is fed up with me and Russia rivalry so what's us to get married". America said a tear falling down her check. She couldn't do this anymore. She be holding it in all day. She going to get married to someone who didn't gave a damn about her while a person she loves and who loves her back is forced to watch.

"He..he can't do that it's not his choice".

"But he can he pretty much has all the power in the world and he's abusing it". America chocked on a sob.

"Did you try to explain to him that your in a relationship ?"

"I want to I really did but R-Russia was there and it happened all so fast I couldn't get any words out my mouth I was d-dumbfounded". America tried to explain herself to China. China a amazing boyfriend but when his mad oh boy.

"I am not mad at you America I mad at UN I'll try get some sense into him okay".

"Thank you Chin.....Chin I have to pack my bags and move into a house with Russia..I am sorry".

China got out of his seat and walk over the the door.

"I am not mad at you America so don't think I am it's UN I am mad at and I can't control my anger at the moment so I am leaving for a bit before I do something to you I'll regret". China walk out of the dining. America put her hand into her hand crying. What was she going to do she losing the love of her love and she had to get fucking married to someone who will probably abuse her. She was a emotional mess.

I am really badly sick and it hurts
Thanks for reading

Chapter three

Russia groan as he walked down the hall of the meeting building. He was pissed UN had called him twice in one day to go to the exact same place. I mean he had better things to do like get drunk or get laid or murder someone he had stuff to. Russia open the door of UN office not caring anymore. UN looked up for his paper work and saw Russia.
"Hello again Russia every heard of knocking ?"

"Ever heard of fuck off ?"

"Just take a seat Russia".

Russia mumbled under his breathe and sat down on the couch. Arms crossed like the mood his is.
"You know Russia I thought you be more happy marring America I mean for what I've seen your a fuck boy you go to bar and strip clubs take a woman with a big bust and we'll have sex and I mean look at America she has a amazing body I thought you want to go home every night have something to take all your stress out on". UN explained

"You can't say much yourself UN everyone sees the way you take advantage of EU the way you play his feeling you don't even care about him I mean we all see the way how you look at NATO".

"Hmm yes well I also thought that you like to dominate the world superpower I mean she sorta took most of your power away when you where USSR I always thought you like to get some sorta of revenge and as her husband she pretty much have to obey you...I mean you would be the bigger person literally ". UN said with a smirk.

"Don't cha- huh I guess your right...but..I thought you liked America you know freedom and all". Russia said trying to make sense of this situation.

"I do sorta but I want her to know her place though".

"What you mean ?"

"Will like she a women and she the strongest country in the world that doesn't fit right"

"...you dislike her cause she a woman ?"

"Yep"

"So if America was Male you have no problem with them ?"

"Yes no problem at all".

"...so your sexist ?"

"I mean aren't with all ?"

"No there a thing called women's right bro it's quite a big thing ".

"Meh but listen you'll have so much power over the strongest country in the world aka the superpower aka your biggest rival aka a THICC bitch aka your finance you in or not".

Russia thought about it for like a really short time no really he do no think at all.

"I am in".

"I know you would be".

China walked up to the Great Hall. He was going to make things right with UN. China was walking to UN office when he saw Russia walking down the hall toward him.

"Good evening China". Russia said as he walked passed him.

"Hello Russia". China grumble he couldn't stand to think this guy is supposed to marry his girlfriend.

China continue making his way to UN office. He knocked on the door.

"Come in".
China opened the door to see UN looking down at his paperwork.

"Nice to see you knock this time Russ- Oh China its you what can help you with ?"

China walked up to UN desk he didn't seat down he want to get this done as soon as possible so he'd could go back home to comfort America.

"So China what can I help you with and please have a seat".

"I'll stay standing thank you and well I know what you're making America and Russia do".

"What!? How do you know did ASEN tell it was supposed to be a surprise for the world".

"ASEN said nothing to me America told me everything"

"Why would she tell you wouldn't she tell like Canada or Australia why you ?" UN ask highly confused.

China signed. "America and I are in a relationship and have been for a while know and I am sorta the third world superpower so I could marry America if would make things so much easier I mean one where in love two we already live together so you wouldn't have to move us into a new home at all three it wouldn't really chance except she'd be my wife instead of girlfriend". China explained giving quite good points.
"No". UN said flatly.
"What Why not ?"

"I've made my mind up Russia snd America will marry".

"This could leaned to another Cold War UN !"

"Were not sure about that".

"But you're still going to chance your a crack head UN you don't deserve all the power you have don't you see you're nearly putting everyone in danger people could be killed!"

"The world over populated anyway"

China couldn't believe it UN didn't care about anyone he was complete jack ass he doesn't even care about the world.

"I say where do here adiós China better kissed America goodbye cause she not yours anymore she now belongs to Russia"

"She a independent country and has been for two centuries stop treating her like she a fucking object".

"Yeah yeah I hear you independent war and all that stuff now get the fuck out of my office".

"With pleasures you sick man".

China slammed the door behind him. What was he going to do. His losing America to Russia a sick prevent man who hated America. America was in huge danger and there was nothing he could do to stop it. He failed America...he failed Amy...

China held back his tears and started to making his way home better to spend all the time he can with her right.

Aw poor China in a lot of RusAme story China nearly always the bully or a awful person so why not change it up a bit. And yeah UN going to be a jackass why I don't know just happened
